Revised/Readopted: 7/9/02
Orig. Code(s): 4112

Employment of Temporary Employees, Contracted Services and Consultants

The Board recognizes the need to employ individuals on a temporary and/or irregular basis to accomplish the goals and objectives of the district.

The Board further recognizes that all employment must comply with district policy, state law and state regulatory agencies, and the laws of the federal government.

To assure compliance with laws and regulations, the superintendent is directed to establish administrative regulations which will coordinate and safeguard the district in the employment and compensation of individuals on a temporary or irregular basis.
