

Academically Gifted Program

Consistent with the intent of the district to provide appropriate educational programs and opportunities to all students, and in compliance with Oregon Revised Statutes and Oregon Administrative Rules, the district will establish and maintain procedures and programs for gifted students of all grade levels.

A district Academically Gifted Program Handbook developed by staff will include:

1. Statement of philosophy;
2. Written goals and objectives of the program;
3. Detailed identification procedures and eligibility criteria;
4. Parent notification of student eligibility, parent input into the program and service selection procedures for parents;
5. Complaint and appeal procedures;
6. Program organization and service delivery plans;
7. Staff responsibilities and training;
8. Evaluation procedures which include input from community, staff, parents and student.

All state-required identification and service minimums will be met or exceeded in the established program.

The handbook will be reviewed periodically and updated as necessary to ensure that district procedures are in compliance and that programs meet or exceed minimum state standards or requirements.
