Adult High School Diploma Program

Adults who have not earned a high school diploma may do so by completing all required state and district program units of credit and other requirements as designated in the current Board policy governing graduation requirements.

Sources of credit to be applied toward a standard high school diploma include military service, work experience, examination, units of credit from post high school education schools, correspondence courses and previous high school credits earned.

The superintendent or designee will develop administrative regulations to implement this policy.
